

A close-up, high-contrast photograph of a bartender's hands muddling lime in a glass. The bartender is wearing a dark uniform. The glass is filled with ice, water, and several lime wedges. A metal muddler is being used to press the limes, causing a large splash of water and ice to erupt from the top of the glass. The background is dark and out of focus. The text "DRINKS & BITES" is overlaid at the bottom in a bold, yellow, sans-serif font.
